FC Rt. 29 Meeting

Seventy people attended the meeting facilitated by the FC Rt 29 Task Force, comprised of neighborhood residents, and Virginia Tech urban planning graduate students. During the meeting, residents from both sides of Rt. 29 circled problem areas along Rt. 29 between Tinner Hill and Graham road and discussed street scape priorities. The students will take the notes and feedback from the residents and develop a study that will illuminate the challenges and potential fixes along the Rt. 29 corridor. A follow-up meeting is planned for December after the report is completed.

Route 50 Meeting

Route 50 Meeting was a part of the VDOT working group that is addressing traffic concerns from Jaguar Trail to Seven Corners. Eventually, Route 50 will be expanded to six lanes. There will be a follow-up meeting planned for spring.

Holiday Decoration Contest Judges

The holiday decoration contest will have three categories. Gift Cards will be given as prizes. Sara will put out a call for volunteers for judges.

From the Residents

A resident on Summerfield sent us the following issue.

“ I would like a discussion about approaching the "drainage" company whose employees are taking all parking on the even-numbered side of Summerfield for 12 hours each day. I think it is their responsibility to provide parking for their people. No one who comes to my house can park near it during the week. Thanks for the consideration.”

Sara informed the resident on Summerfield that the company has had complaints from other residents and were not responsive on the issue. However, the problem may be solved if Summerfield qualifies for an extension of the RPPD.
